During the period January - March, 1970, the Birmingham Field Division did not have under investigation any organization within the so-called "New Left".

The Oneonta Collective was associated with the defunct Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC). After SSOC ceased activity, the Oneonta Collective adopted a Marxist-Leninist point of view and on 3/21/70, during a visit by DANIEL RUBIN, National Organization Secretary, CPUSA, was constituted as the Oneonta Club of the CPUSA.

Therefore, in the absence of an organized New Left, Birmingham has had no opportunity for development of a counterintelligence program.

ReBulet instructs that commencing 7/1/68, and every three months thereafter, participating offices should submit a status letter covering the prior three-month period under the captions used below.

The following is submitted for the period of October-December 1969:

1) Potential Counterintelligence Action

No potential counterintelligence action directed against the New Left was afforded during the period October-December 1969.

The RYM faction of SDS was in existence in Birmingham only from mid-August to mid-October 1969. During its existence in Birmingham this faction failed to achieve any results and apparently decided to terminate its connection with Birmingham in favor of Atlanta, Georgia.

The Oneonta Collective is reported to have no connection with SDS or any other campus oriented group. From available information, it appears the Collective intends to align itself with the planned New Marxist Youth Organization.

SDS, according to information available to Birmingham, publicly appeared on the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, campus in mid-September, 1968, coinciding with the beginning of the school year.

SSOC, in late August, 1968, was reported to have designated a "campus traveller" (organizer) for Alabama. More recently, information has been received that this "campus traveller" had been sent to Mississippi. No information is available as yet regarding a replacement.

Other than publishing a monthly newsletter, "The Fuse," which did not appear during September, 1968, AACD has not been active. This is probably due to the involvement of [REDACTED] ACFP, and also as a member of the National Democratic Party of Alabama (NDPA) delegation, which sought to be seated at the Democratic Party convention in Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968. [REDACTED] has been nominated by NDPA as a [REDACTED] candidate, but to date NDPA has not gained a place on the ballot for the November general election.

ACFP purports to offer "draft counseling" assistance, but is not known to have engaged in such on any sizeable scale. ACFP is apparently sponsoring a lecture by [REDACTED] American Friends Service Committee for October 7, 1968, at the University of Alabama, Engineering Building Auditorium, Birmingham, Alabama.

The relative inactive status of AACD and the just emerging activity of ACFP have not afforded an opportunity for counterintelligence action. Both groups are of a public nature, and it would appear they are possibly open to some form of action upon the developing of activity on their part.

SUBJECT: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
INTERNAL SECURITY

DATE: 7/2/68

ReBulet to Albany, 5/28/68.

There have not been any disturbances on any campus, attributable to a "New Left" type organization, within the territory of the Birmingham Field Division. Consequently there is no summary to be made of any campus disruptive activity.

The Democratic Student Organization, chartered 4/18/68 at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Ala. has as its objectives to stimulate meaningful dialogue between students and faculty; encourage and support progressive candidates for state and local offices; engage in partisan politics.

DSO was also active during the school year 1968 in leading 'peace vigils' to express the feeling held by some members of the University community concerning the war in Vietnam.

It does not appear that DSO is a 'New Left' type organization within the meaning of relet.

Information has been received of an organization, terming itself "Students for Peace in Vietnam," being active at Samford University. Investigation has not yet developed the nature of this group in relation to the 'New Left.'

Activities of DSO are covered through liaison with [redacted] University of Alabama, because of the unsettled membership.

The Birmingham Office, upon the basis of available information, is of the opinion that the potential for violence on any campus in its territory in the coming school year is minimal.

Alabama Committee for Freedom and Peace (ACFP)
Students for Peace in Vietnam

The ACFP, over the signature of [REDACTED] leased office space at 1802 Third Avenue North, Birmingham, Ala., for one year beginning 6/1/68. The door to this office space has a sign which reads: "State Headquarters: ACFP; Regional Office: Resist; AACD: "The Fuse."

ACFP, on 6/15/68, staged a picket line-type demonstration consisting of [REDACTED] individuals including [REDACTED]. A card was handed out which stated, in part, for draft counseling contact ACFP.

AACD has not been publicly active since 4/22-26/68 except for publication of "The Fuse", a monthly newsletter, the third issue of which appeared in June, 1968.

Within the ranks of the New Left, there is but one known example of apparent immoral conduct.

Specifically the only demonstrations occurring on a campus within Birmingham's territory were a series of peace vigils conducted once a week at the University of Alabama.

The policy followed by University administration was to allow no nonstudent to demonstrate on the campus. If such are identified, they are asked to leave and if they refuse, they would be arrested by the campus police and charged with trespass after warning. To date, non-students have not participated in any student protest.

Advice has been received from the administration at the University of Alabama that it is prepared to meet with firmness any activity contrary to present University policy.

Birmingham will continue to follow this matter and any information received coming within the above categories will be furnished to the Bureau.

ReBulet to Albany, 5/10/68.

Relet instructs all offices to submit a detailed analysis of potential counterintelligence action against New Left organizations and Key Activists within their respective territories.

The only New Left-type organization known to exist within the territory of the Birmingham Office is the Accidental Assemblies of Cosmic Dust (AACD). The leading activist in AACD is [REDACTED] AACD and [REDACTED] are presently the subjects of pending investigations.

AACD sponsored demonstrations 3/2-3/68, and 4/22-27/68, which centered around anti-draft and peace issues. With these demonstrations, AACD seems to have effected a change from a "hippie" type body to one of the New Left type.

Investigation thus far indicates that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are the only consistent activists in AACD. The individuals participating in AACD demonstrations vary from one to the next with few repetitions.

AACD has received publicity in the local press and has in general been treated with ridicule and its adherents described as "hippies".

In view of the inchoate nature of AACD, Birmingham believes the only counterintelligence avenue presently open against it is through [REDACTED]. While the investigation of [REDACTED] and AACD has not yet progressed to the point where all facets of the character of each are known, it appears that [REDACTED] might be vulnerable to counterintelligence through [REDACTED].
